Information and Authorization

Financial Aid is granted on a year-to-year basis, a student must reapply for financial aid each year, and since all awards are determined by current need, the amount of each award may change from year to year. Financial Aid is available for a maximum of 12 quarters of enrollment at Principia College.

I understand that financial aid recipients are expected to maintain satisfactory academic progress and constructive community citizenship. I also understand that falsifying information on a financial aid application will result in immediate cancellation of all need-based aid and could result in disciplinary suspension.
